Guidelines for Submitting Document

Upload this form and financial support document to admission.usc.edu/status. Under "Forms to Complete," select "Financial Statement." Answer the required questions and then upload your signed copy of this form, as well as backup documentation and a copy of your passport.

You will not be able to access your applicant portal until after your application has been submitted and processed. Once that happens, you will be emailed information about accessing your applicant portal. At that time you may upload these documents.

The financial statement is required as part of your application, even if you are applying for merit scholarship consideration.
